About Us

At TekGrads, we bridge the gap between IT education and careers with real-time training, hands-on internships, interview prep, and job placement. Founded by an IT expert with 14+ years of experience, we provide structured learning, mentorship, and career support to help professionals secure high-paying IT roles.

The Founder

Ravindar Kothapally, with 14+ years of IT experience in global MNCs, has led real-time IT training worldwide, bridging talent and industry needs. In January 2025, he launched TekGrads to revolutionize IT education, offering real-world training, internships, job placements, and career guidance for aspiring professionals.

Vision

At TekGrads, we bridge academia and industry with real-time training, internships, and job placements, empowering individuals with skills, confidence, and career success in the IT and technology sectors.
